

PL 410 Urban Design Project-1

The project deals with multi-use medium size area master planning. Major concerns of urban design such as place identity, connectivity, permeability and image are tackled. In particular, the project focuses on urban space design. Detailed consideration and study is given to the proposed public spaces, such as pedestrian routes, squares, parks or communal gardens.