

PL 412 Theories and Principles of Urban Design

The course defines Urban Design and introduces major goals and principles. Character, image, connectivity, public space, robustness and others issues are studied. Additionally, major theories of Urban Design are reviewed. Starting with ancient methods for design, place theory, artistic tradition, image, social and environmental based theories, among others, are introduced.