

PL 430 Urban Design Project-2

The studio focuses on the preparation of a master plan of an existing area. It introduces students to the principles of urban design and its role in redevelopment of existing areas. It also discusses and explains urban design principles, objectives and considerations and introduces various urban design techniques and methods in analyzing the built and the spatial environments.