

PL 433 Planning Theories

The main goal of the course is to introduce the concept and the idea of planning theories and its basic principles .Therefore, the course focuses on the practice of planning and the reasons why are the planning theories important subjects for practicing planners.