

PL 441 Regional Planning

The main learning outcome for students enrolled in this course is to build the basic knowledge about regions and their limits. Moreover, the region hierarchy, spatial identity ,administration units, spatial characteristics and economical and social relations are included in the course too. Students will understand the concepts behind the regional planning and its components and principals.