

PI 471 Spatial and Visual Analysis

Familiarizing students with the evolution of the built environment, Urban Fabric and urban spaces. Introducing students to different approaches used in Spatial and Visual Analysis. Enabling students to understand and appreciate the relationship between gathered data, analysis, and conceptualization in different built environments issues. Helping students understand and interpret any Spatial and Visual issues which they may come across in future projects.