

PL 476 Urban Management

This course focuses on the Knowledge of urban planning regulations and administrative responsibilities. At national, regional, and city level. The case of the city of Riyadh will be used as an example. Also, the course focuses on the role of municipal councils and the process of obtaining planning permissions.