

PL 495 Graduation Project

To familiarize students on the process of presenting and preparing alternatives of planning based on multi-level urban studies using various assessment toward the development of preformed options. This will be followed by the preparation of plans and detailed reports concerning the discussed issues.