

Plan 498 Real Estate Development

The course focuses on improving the student's knowledge of the real estate development field. On successfully completing the course, the student will: Understand the different component of the real estate industry (real estate development, marketing, real estate finance, feasibility, appraisal, and property management).